THE SCHEME

SWEET!

A RICH AND FLAVOURFUL HISTORY

PRESERVING HISTORY

The secret recipe of E Lazenby & Sons Harvey's Sauce saw the pickle manufacturers become a household name and they expanded by purchasing their "gigantic kitchens" on Crimscott Street, Bermondsey. In 1919 the company was fused with Crosse and Blackwell and 5 years later The Branston Pickle Brand was born and stirred into Bermondsey's history.

Crosse and Blackwell was founded in 1929 when two apprentice friends - Edmund Crosse and Thomas Blackwell bought out the grocers West and Wyatt. Making pickles, preserves and bottled fruit, Crosse and Blackwell are said to have produced a quarter of London's jam consumption.

In 1924 a new kitchen was built on the Crosse and Blackwell site which was known as the 'Great Addition' and the factory continued to concoct chutneys, jellies and relishes until 1969.

THE LOCATION

A SLICE OF CONNECTIVITY

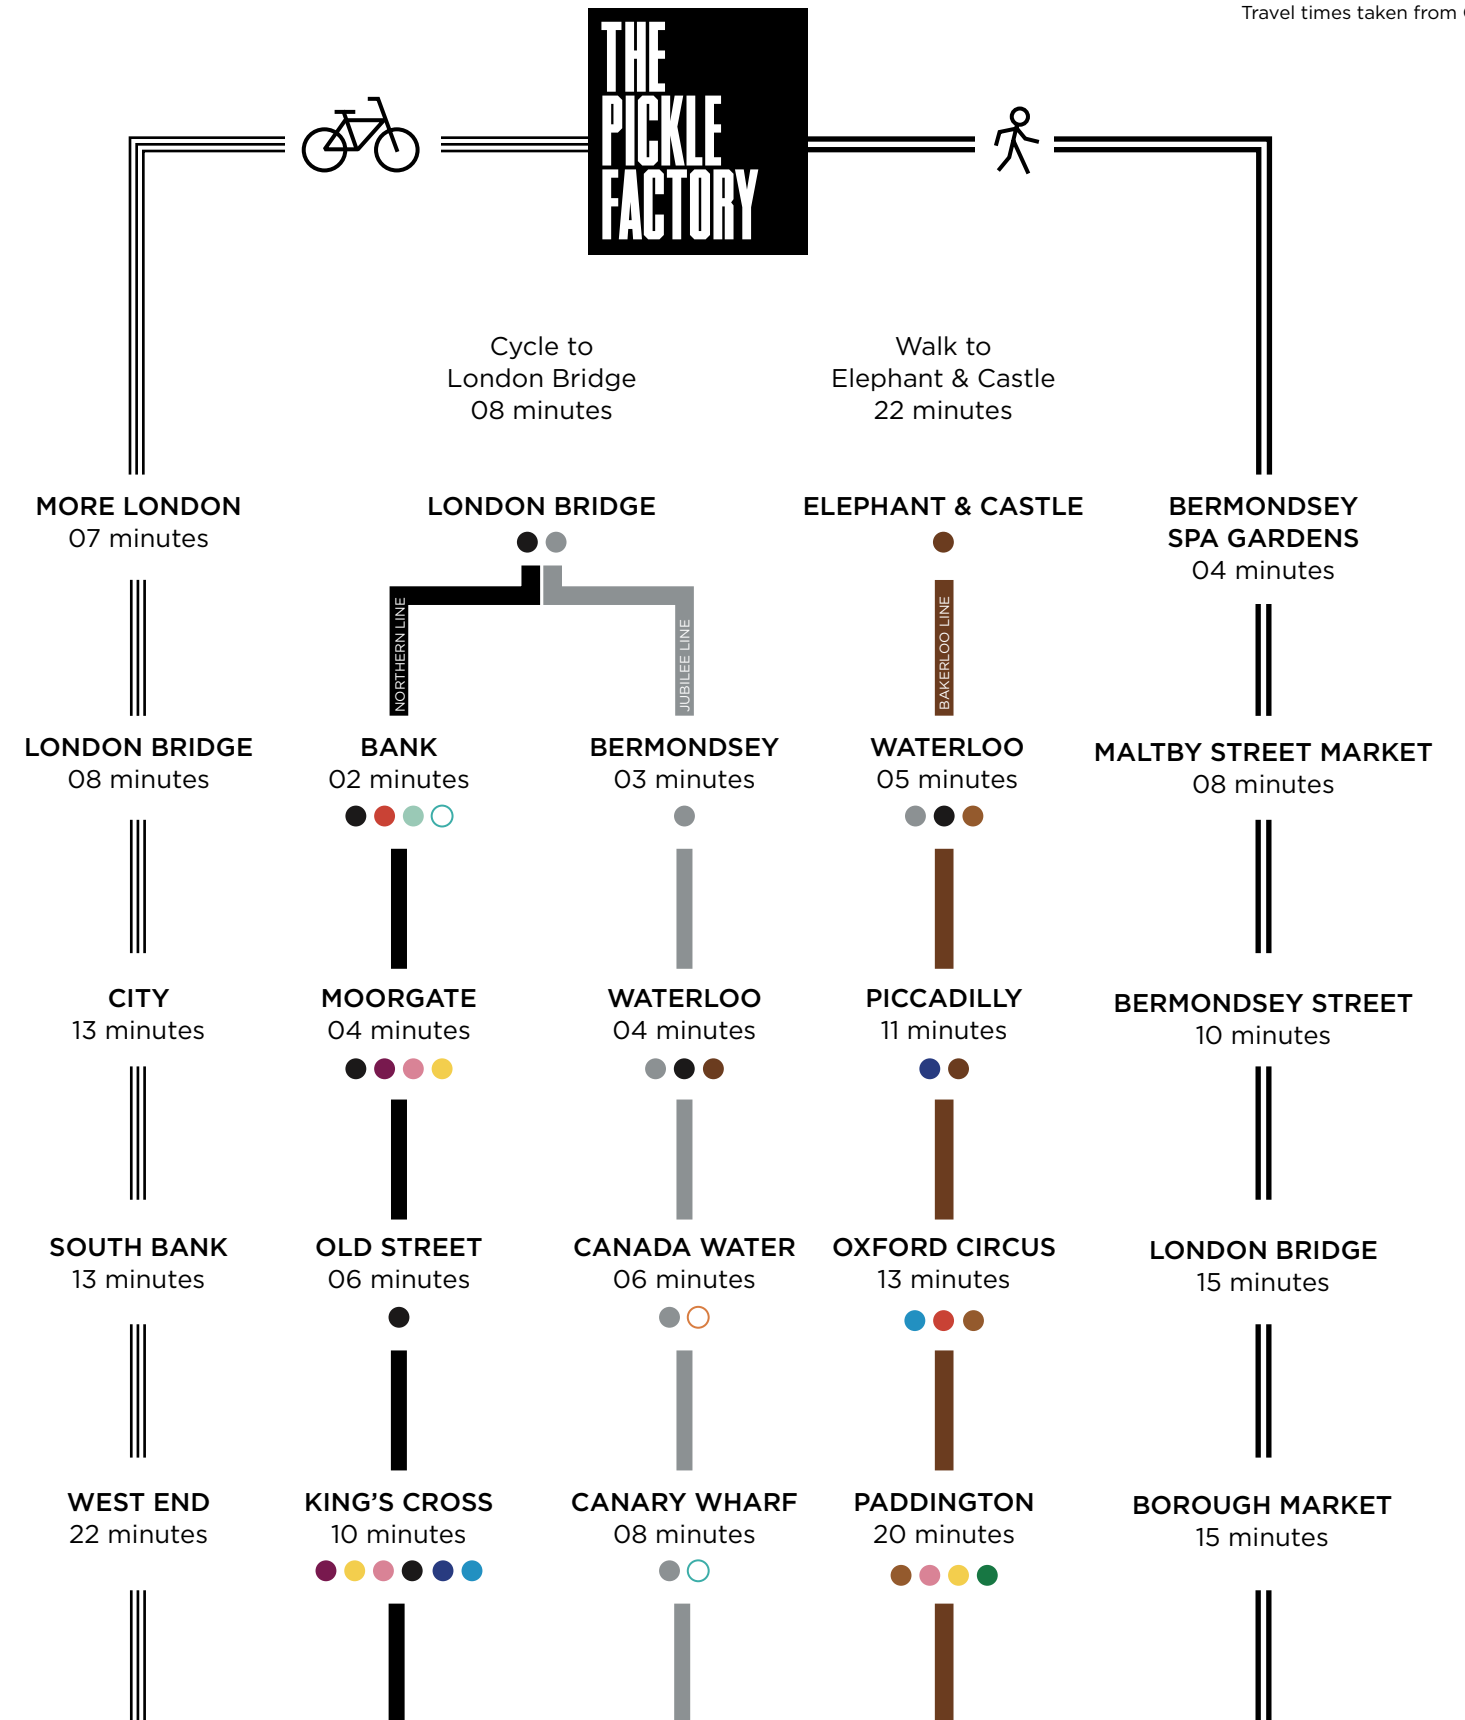

Whether it's a business meeting in Canary Wharf, a Friday brunch in Soho or a leisurely meander through a local street market, The Pickle Factory is perfectly situated to be within easy reach of key destinations in London.

Bermondsey High Street is a short walk from The Pickle Factory where you can enjoy an eclectic mix of bars, cafes and eateries or indulge yourself in the local art scene.

Just 15 minutes walk away, London Bridge Station is a major transport hub offering speedy access to Waterloo Station in 4 minutes and King's Cross Station in 11 minutes.

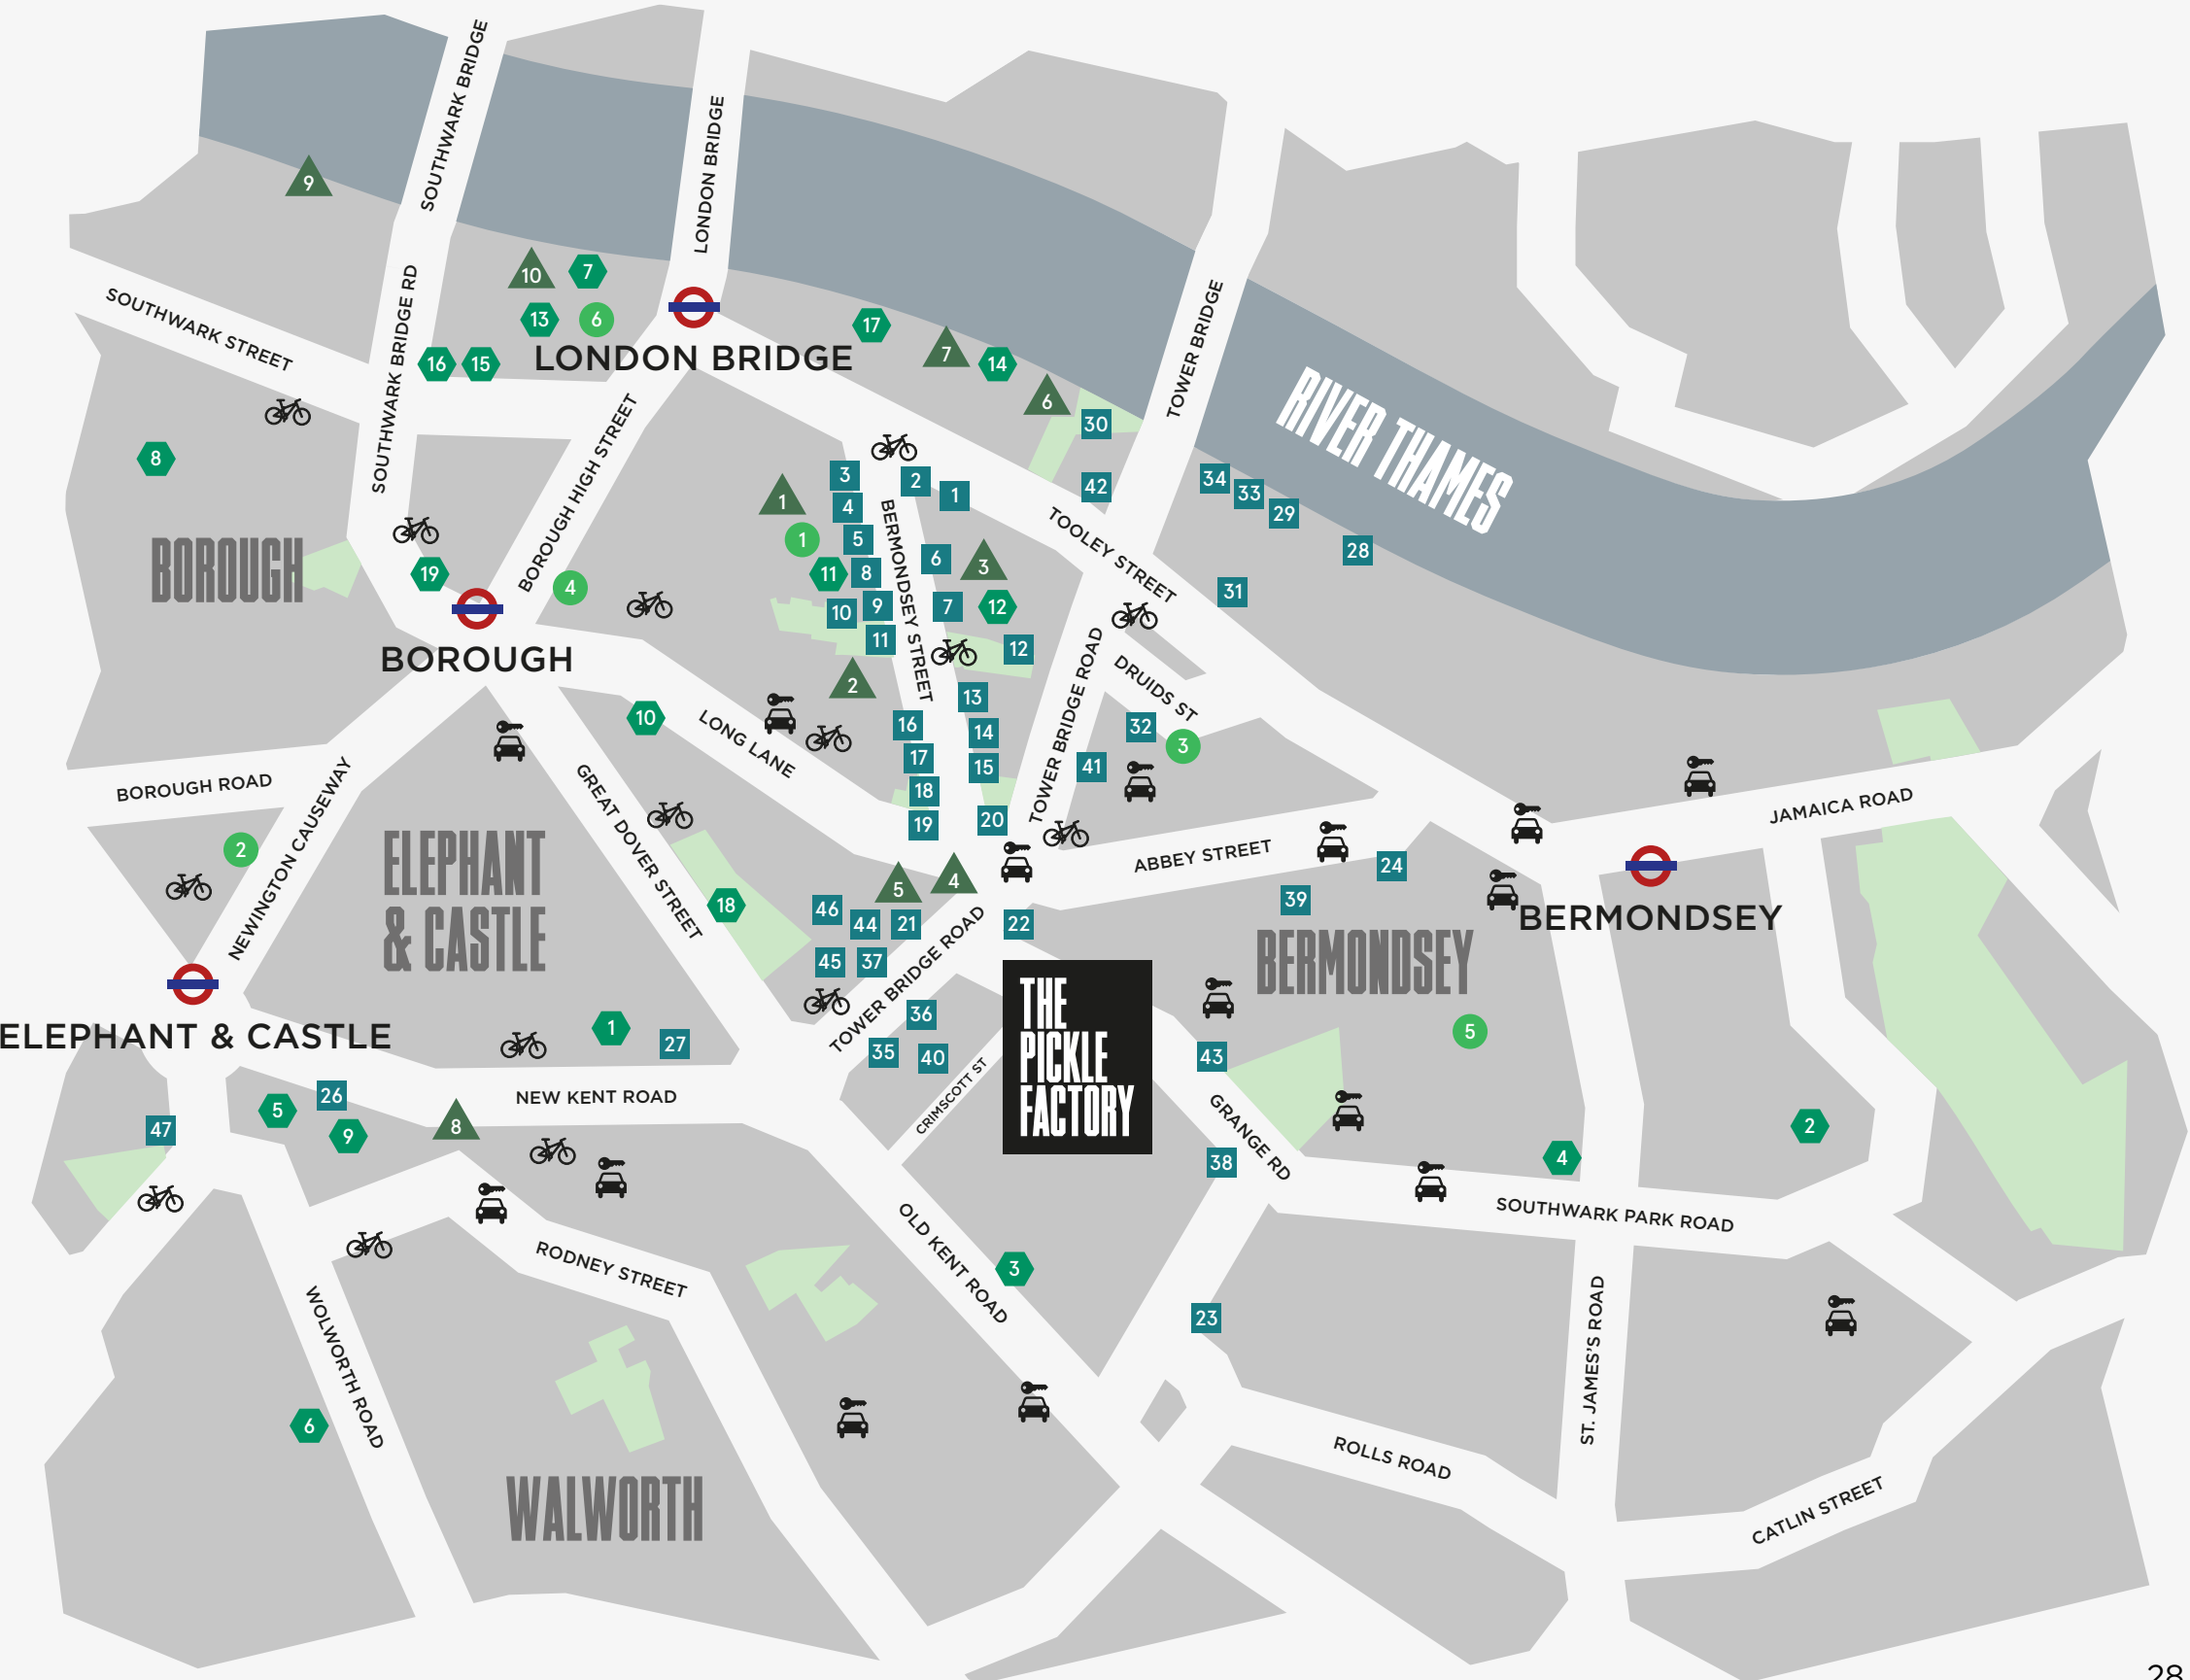

Alternatively the Bakerloo line at Elephant and Castle can take you to the bright lights of the West End in less than 12 minutes and if you're after something more local, the gourmet street food of Maltby Street Market is just 8 minutes walk away.

SAVOUR THE LOCAL CULTURE

In a pocket of London known for its art, design and buzzing atmosphere, the site will include a 14,000 sq ft artistic hub prelet to Tannery Arts/Drawing Room which is an independent charity making contemporary art accessible to a wider public.

The Pickle Factory also has plenty of places and activities on its doorstep to explore. Mixing a spot of tennis with the history of the ravens at Tower of London. Taste street food delights with views of The Shard followed by a cocktail in Aqua overlooking the vibrant city. Uncover new artists, enjoy classic Shakespeare or simply take a moment to watch the world and boats go by in the peaceful St Katharine Docks.

THE LOCAL FLAVOURS

Food lovers flock to Bermondsey for an exceptional choice of restaurants, cafés and bars. Sample pizza and ping pong at Bermondsey Bar & Kitchen or experience a truly authentic Parisian meal at Casse-Croûte, complete with checked tablecloths.

If you are looking for an afterwork tipple, The Garrison with its eye-catching green tiled exterior is the perfect choice or soak up the sun at Tanner & Co's south facing terrace. For something truly original, and typical of the hip SE1 vibe, there's the Bermondsey Arts Club and Cocktail Bar.

For high quality artisan coffee, the former churchyard guard house, The Watch House offers a great space to enjoy a flat white or taste the award-winning coffee at the Fashion and Textile Museum's café followed by a Comptoir macaroon.
